Previously I served as legal counsel for Telemundo Communications, NBC Universal and Tribune Media where I gained valuable experience in labor relations; human resources; and diversity, equity, and inclusion. My career and outlook have been influenced heavily by my bi-cultural identity, lived experiences in and outside of the U.S. and responsibility for matters in LATAM, EMEA, APAC and NORAM. At Expedia Group I am fortunate to be able to blend my background and experiences and work with over 15,000 Expedians around the world to create a more inclusive, equitable and engaging workplace, while also making a difference in our industry and communities.

At Expedia Group, we believe travel is a force for good and are committed to making it more enjoyable, equitable and accessible to all. We are also focused on doing our part to make travel more sustainable. We are excited for the road ahead and look forward to the
